This topographic map shows the area around Haslistutz. A prominent red line indicates a proposed railway route, starting from the top left and running generally southwards. The map features numerous roads and paths, including Haslistutz, Obere Haslistutz, and several village paths (e.g., Untere Rebhalde, Röhthalweg, Dammweg, Klostersteg, Dürnbühlweg, Kirchweg, Bösenkehrweg, Rudolfweg, Steingasse, Im Graben, Friedenbergstrasse, Lohsalgenstrasse, Eggenweg, Kastenweg, Alter Bürgerhüttliweg, Rudolfweg, Haurweg, Haur-Kopf-Altweg, Riedrainweg, Seelenbergweg, and Seelenbergweg). Three green circles are placed on the map: one near the intersection of Friedenbergstrasse and Seelenbergweg, another near the intersection of Friedenbergstrasse and Im Graben, and a third near the intersection of Rudolfweg and Steingasse. The terrain is depicted with green shading to represent elevation and vegetation.
